SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 24, 1904.

Summer in the Country.
Most people take summer holidays in the hope of getting a change. Some find it, and some do not, according to "The London Chronicle." The lady who tried to climb over a stile the first day she arrived in the country certainly thought she had left London a couple of hundred miles away, but she rather wished, all the same, that the country was not so densely populated, and she turned an appealing look upon the rustic gaffer who insisted on watching her climb. A broad grin spread over his countenance as he caught her meaning. "Lor bless ye, mum, don't be shy before me!" he adjusted her. "I was a 'bus conductor for fifteen years!"

Drank 75-year-old Applejack.
While workmen were tearing down the old stone building belonging to the Ziegler estate, at Dillingersville, Pa., which had been erected nearly three-quarters of a century ago, they found imbedded in the mortar in the rear wall a two-gallon wicker covered demijohn. In it was a little over a quart of applejack, possibly all that remained of the two gallons. The applejack was of the consistency of glycerine, and a tablespoonful made a man feel exceedingly salubrious. One of the workmen swallowed a glassful of it, and he was dead to the world for over three hours.

Editor Fined for Contempt.
Judge Woodbridge Strong, in the Middlesex county, N. J., court, has found Francis W. Daire, editor of the Daily Times, of New Brunswick, guilty of contempt of court in criticising the court for fining Alfred Cooley but $75 on the charge of assaulting Mary Ann Kavanaugh, a girl under 16 years old. The judge fined the editor $500 and costs, he to stand imprisoned until the fine has been paid. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court and a bond of $1,000 was given pending decision by the higher court.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.
With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 15 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip proves its matchless merit for Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Sour Stomach.
When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children with teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sells in drug stores in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

It contains many half-tone illustrations showing the most noted of North Carolina's pleasure resorts and boarding houses with rates of each. It is a most useful guide.
